

SUMMARY OF THE “Inclusive Community” PROJECT

October 2021- April 2022 (six months and a half)

The " Inclusive Community " project aims to give continuity to the previous project presented by our organization, in order to offer young Europeans, the possibility to live a volunteer experience 😊 😊. The entities hosting 3 volunteers are in Valladolid (North of Spain). “Casa de Juventud Aleste”, as coordinating entity, as well, and “Allende Mundi”.

Both entities are located on neighborhoods with special social, economic and cultural needs, that is to say, inhabited by groups in social exclusion situations. There are many ethnic minorities and/or immigrants.

OBJECTIVES:

- To promote learning by means of volunteering and experiences had during the project, to improve professional skills for a future job.
- To develop the feeling of associationism at the local, regional, national and international levels in which our project is moving.
- To promote volunteering by means of national and international entities for the knowledge and improvement of the current social situation.
- To facilitate exchanges between different cultures.
- To collaborate in the European dimension of the partner entities and of the ones carrying out the project.
- To create synergies between different youth organizations.

- To participate in the development of skills and knowledge of the European volunteer by means of training and support provided during the process.
- To improve the situation of the minors at risk of exclusion coming from the host institutions.
- To make the young people joining the project, both the young participant and the young volunteer, feel involved.

METHODOLOGY

It is committed to the active participation of the volunteers in all the activities by means of teamwork as a method that facilitates the development of a climate of trust, awakens interest in group work, helps share knowledge, facilitates intercultural exchange and the use of language, and make it possible to work on the European dimension throughout the project.

RESULTS

Based on the experience of the previous years:

There is an improvement in the competences of each of the volunteers, from a European key. The richness of cultural diversity and its values will have an impact on the volunteers and the program participants. In addition, both entities will have a direct impact, when receiving the collaboration of the volunteers.
